A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am sure that all the members that attended SOS Fall Migration at North Myrtle Beach have recouped from all the sun and fun. For those who didn't attend, the weather was great and the music and dancing in the Clubs was great and well attended by all of the ACSC Clubs.

Want to thank Darryl and Brenda Dellis for hosting the September dance, also thanks to Donna Sue Richardson for the dance lesson and Roger Nichols and Sam Pillis for conducting the 50/50. The Club presented the Community Christmas Store a donation of $5,000.00 from the proceeds of the Silent Auction.

The Club will start having free dance lessons on Thursday evenings at the Elephant Walk in Holiday Inn Tangelwood. They will start the 7th of October at 7 PM, with dancing to follow with DJ Jerry English. There will be a $2.00 donation at the door for the DJ. I challenge all Club members to come out and support the weekly dances from 7-10PM. The Dance Instructors will be Doug and Nancey Woodson.

The Slate of Officers for 2011 is in this newsletter. The election of officers will be at the General Membership meeting prior to the November Dance at the Thunderbird Club on 13 November.

The Club is selling Dining Club Memberships for $40.00 with the proceeds going towards the 20th Annual Pig Pickin. Members interested in obtaining a Dining Club Membership can contact me at 721-1115.

Shag Notes
By Bill Althoff

Shag Notes is a monthly music comment column. Opinions are those of the author alone and not of the Roanoke Valley Shag Club.

All of us have to learn to deal with the accomplishments and expectations of our parents, but it must be especially difficult for children of musicians. John Lee Hooker Jr.'s music career has not led to fame, and Elmore James Jr. titled his CD Daddy Gave Me The Blues. Similarly, Teeny Tucker still shoulders the accomplishments of her father Tommy Tucker in her new CD Keep The Blues Alive.

Keep the Blues Alive is at least Teeny Tucker's second release, and her initial CD Hi-Heel Sneakers was titled after her father's famous hit. She is setting more of her own course in this 2010 disc, and most of the songs on Keep The Blues Alive were written by Teeny herself. There are eleven songs on the CD, with three worthy of consideration for our dance use. Teeny's firm grounding in a range of blues styles is fully revealed.

For our dance, the song of primary interest is the title track, "Keep The Blues Alive". As with many female artists, Teeny started singing in the church choir (in Dayton, OH) and this song opens with a wonderful A'capella Gospel opening before the beat builds in behind. The song is a straightforward call as the title implies, and it "connects" to all who share the joy of this music. Also of interest for Carolina Shag use is the song "Old Man Magnet", delivered with a style that recalls a fun night out.

The shadow of her father's accomplishments still hang over this release, with two songs (e.g. "Daughter To The Blues") making direct mention of Tommy Tucker's work. It seems clear that Teeny Tucker has the ability and the desire to be a premier blues vocalist. She should continue to respect all that she has learned from her father, but it appears to be time for her to step forward fully on her own. Keep The Blues Alive is on TeBo Records.

What have you done this past month to support the musicians? Music: Buy it, don't burn it.

Bill
